

Importance of Tajweed

- It is important to recite Quran as done by Nabi SAW
- Precision in tilawat is a command from Allah SWT
- It is a sign of a momin

Fard Ain-

- Fard (Obligation) on every individual Muslim.
- Implication of Tajweed is compulsion.

Fard Kifaya-

- Not obligation on every Muslim but if a group of people do it, then it is done for the community.
- Expertise in the rules of Tajweed is sufficient for a few people to fulfill.

4 types of people in regard to study of Tajweed

1. People who learn and teach Quran are Ahlul Quran and they will be in Safawatul mala- rows of angels who are close to Allah
 - They are people who recite beautifully. Angels descend when Quran is recited. They are Successful people.
2. People who put effort in learning and reciting with Tajweed but are unable to achieve the best level. They get double reward for each letter. They are Successful people.
3. People who think Tajweed is not important or hard. They get sin if they recite incorrectly. They are sinners.
4. People who are experts in Tajweed but do not implement it practically either for teaching or as a reciter.
 - This also includes those who learn Tajweed but don't recite properly due to laziness. They are sinners.
